Professional Background

Attorney Sun joined Beijing Hylands (Shanghai) Law Firm in December 2023. Prior to this, Attorney Sun had worked for several years at a well-known big law firm and a leading financing leasing company.

Attorney Sun's main areas of practice include bankruptcy reorganization and special asset disposal, dispute resolution, and corporate business-related legal services. In the field of bankruptcy reorganization, Attorney Sun, as a member of the bankruptcy administrator, has handled over thirty bankruptcy cases. Cases such as the Daqin Shipbuilding Reorganization, Huaxin Group Merger Bankruptcy Liquidation, and Yuyao Shimou Reorganization were selected as classic cases by national courts, Shanghai courts, and Zhejiang courts, respectively.

In the field of non-performing asset investment, Attorney Sun, as a legal advisor to investors, has been involved in numerous large-scale domestic projects. He is responsible for project due diligence, investment scheme design, negotiation of schemes, and drafting of transaction documents. In the dispute resolution field, Attorney Sun has handled dozens of cases, including business trust disputes, construction engineering contract disputes, shareholder contribution disputes, and company dissolution disputes. Additionally, Attorney Sun has extensive practical experience in financial disputes in areas such as financing leasing and commercial factoring.
