

Danggui Li Shanghai Office

Language: Chinese, English

Expertise: Dispute Resolution Asset Management

Tel: +86 159 0088 9700

Email: lidanggui@hylandslaw.com

基本信息

Education Background

2012-2015 | Shandong University of Political | Science and Law | Juris Master | master's candidate

Working Experience

2023-now | Hylands Law Firm Shanghai Office | partner

2015-2022 | Hubei Jinwei Law Firm | partner

Professional Qualifications

Chinese lawyer

CPA

CTA

Professional Background

Lawyer Li Danggui, a partner of Hylands Law Firm Shanghai office, holds a Master of Laws degree. He is a Chinese Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and a Chinese Certified Tax Agent (CTA). During his ten years of practice, he has systematically established a composite service system integrating "law + finance and taxation." He has continuously delved deep into the fields of major commercial dispute resolution, corporate compliance governance, and asset management, providing comprehensive legal and financial and tax services for many listed companies, companies planning to go public, and financial institutions.

In the aspects of commercial dispute resolution and corporate business, he once took the lead in handling a series of economic disputes of a provincial construction group. Through the optimization of litigation strategies, he has cumulatively recovered huge economic losses. He has constructed a customized service plan for an auto parts enterprise and achieved excellent litigation results. As the perennial legal counsel of a fund management company with an asset scale of over 50 billion yuan, he provides legal services in the links of fund raising, management, and withdrawal, and also offers comprehensive legal services related to the design of the fund investment structure and tax issues.

The clients served by Lawyer Li also include medical chain enterprises, water resources and hydropower group companies, property management associations, property management companies, and listed manufacturing enterprises, etc.

He deconstructs legal issues with a business mindset and creates solutions with cross-border wisdom. He always adheres to the service concept that "prevention is better than remedy" and builds a sustainable and compliant ecology for enterprises.

Honors and Awards

Representative Cases

Asset Management

As the chief legal counsel of a construction group's head office, he represented the group in multiple litigation cases against financial institutions, striving for substantial economic benefits for the group.

As the chief legal counsel of an auto parts company, he represented the company in a dispute over a steel purchase and sales contract with an upstream company in the industry, achieving satisfactory results.

As the chief legal counsel of a water resources and hydropower group company, he represented the company in an arbitration case regarding a construction project contract dispute with a tourism company and obtained a significant winning award.

As a special legal and financial and tax advisor to an asset management company, for the part (200 million yuan) of the repurchase price paid by the asset management company for repurchasing the equity of financial investors that exceeds the investment amount, which involves a dispute over "dividends and interests", he provided comprehensive legal, financial and tax services and successfully applied for the pre-tax deduction of income tax for the asset management company, involving a tax amount of 50 million yuan.
