Professional Background

Attorney Wang specializes in civil and commercial dispute resolution, real estate and construction, general corporate affairs, and bankruptcy and liquidation. With extensive hands-on experience in complex dispute resolution, he is particularly adept at handling sophisticated commercial litigation and arbitration matters. In litigation, he has represented large state-owned enterprises (SOEs), public institutions and prominent listed companies in various commercial disputes before courts, including cases involving commercial contracts, construction engineering and corporate finance. In arbitration, he has acted as counsel for corporate clients in proceedings administered by the Shanghai Arbitration Commission (SHAC), Shanghai International Arbitration Center (SHIAC) and Shenzhen Court of International Arbitration (SCIA). Regarding general corporate affairs, he has served as outside counsel providing legal advisory services to multiple central SOEs, public institutions and listed companies. In bankruptcy and liquidation matters, he has served as key member of bankruptcy administrator teams directing restructuring and liquidation operations for court-appointed projects.
