Professional Background

Attorney Fu previously practiced at a large law firm as a lawyer in the financial department. Her principal practice areas are financial litigation and capital markets-related non-litigious legal services, where she has accumulated extensive practical experience in civil and commercial litigation.

Attorney Fu has acted as the lead attorney in providing perennial legal counsel services or specialized legal services to large state-owned enterprises, central enterprises, and investment companies. As a member of the litigation team, she represented an investment company in financial investment-related litigation cases connected to the bankruptcy restructuring of Sansheng Hongye.

In addition to complex commercial litigation, Attorney Fu has also acted as the lead attorney in handling numerous financial criminal cases and was engaged by a bankruptcy administrator to lead bankruptcy derivative litigation. Regarding non-litigious matters, she has designed equity incentive projects for several companies and has repeatedly produced due diligence reports and legal opinions for large-scale mergers and acquisitions as well as equity investments.
