Professional Background

Attorney Fang Xin has long provided specialized and ongoing legal services to multiple commercial banks and non-bank financial institutions, possessing extensive practical experience in financial institution compliance, risk resolution, and related dispute resolution. Throughout his practice, he has handled a large number of significant, difficult, and complex civil and commercial cases, demonstrating profound litigation skills and excellent courtroom responsiveness. Furthermore, he has outstanding professional advantages in the criminal field, particularly adept at handling economic crime cases. He has conducted in-depth research on the elements of offenses and defense strategies for crimes such as illegal fundraising, bribery, job-related embezzlement, misappropriation of funds, and organizing and leading pyramid schemes, enabling him to provide clients with comprehensive and precise legal support in criminal-civil cross matters.
