Professional Background

Mr. Duan is the head of Beijing Hylands (Tianjin) Law Firm. He graduated from the University of Bristol Law School with a Master of Laws degree. He has been a lawyer since 1999, and has been engaged in the liquidation, reorganization and bankruptcy of financial institutions, real estate companies and investment institutions for a long time. He has the overall organization and coordination ability of major and complex cases. In terms of corporate mergers and acquisitions, Mr. Duan, with his work experience in the investment department of large insurance companies, can provide professional services with commercial value to all parties involved. In recent years, Mr. Duan has deeply cultivated the Tianjin legal service market and accumulated rich local business resources. He is committed to giving full play to the advantages of Haotian's integration and scale to provide first-class commercial legal services for local clients.

Mr. Duan has extensive experience in risk management and investment management. As the author, he participated in the research on the "risk disposal of insurance companies" by the China Insurance Security Fund and participated in the drafting of relevant legislation. Lawyer Duan once served as the Deputy General Manager of the Real Estate and Equity Investment Department of New China Life Insurance Company, organized and completed the filing of the company's equity and real estate investment capabilities. He is also responsible for clearing the illegal misappropriation of funds by the former chairman of the company, and participating in the preparations for the company's listing as a key member. At present, Mr. Duan is an external risk management expert of the Insurance Asset Management Association of China, and also has the qualifications of life insurance manager and fund manager.
